Graduate Conference

Work in Progress

Poland, post-war trials and DPs

Perspective of occupied territory: the case-study of Poland

Moderator: dr. Andrea Löw

Anna Veronica Pobbe
PhD-candidate Università di Trento

Hans Biebow in 1942, the economic side of the Endlösung in Łódź Ghetto

Emiliano Vitti
PhD-candidate Università di Pavia

The National Socialist juridical paradox during the occupation in the East, the case of General Government of Poland

Karen Porter
PhD-candidate University of Sheffield-Hallam

Mothers in the Łódź Ghetto, as seen through their children's diaries

Dr. Jack Woods
Superstition in the Polish Ghettos during the time of the Nazi Occupation

War Trials

Moderator: Prof. Umberto Gentiloni Silveri

Leo Gurtler, PhD-candidate University of Vienna

Franz Stangl: A biographical study

Philip Dinkelanker, PhD-candidate Zentrum fur Antisemitismusforschung - Berlin

Dealing with „Jewish Collaboration” in post-National-Socialist Germany - Honor Court, Social Court and Judicial Trials Against Shoah Survivors

Dr. Franziska Kols
War crimes in the collective memory. The trials for Nazi massacres in Italy after 1994 from a German-Italian perspective

What is left after the war? Memory, survivors and other issues

Moderators: Prof. Nicola Labanca
Prof. Tullia Catalan

Federica di Padova, PhD-candidate Università di Trieste

Jewish Refugees in Northern Italy.
The attack on Jewish DPs of May 1, 1946 in Reggio Emilia

Dr. Chiara Renzo, Ca’ Foscari Università di Venezia

The Jewish Displaced Persons in Italy (1943-1951). Humanitarian Aid, Political Support and Self-Representation

Alicja Podbielska, PhD-candidate Clark University

The Aftermath of Rescue

Dr. Nicola Tonietto

The political legacy of Fascism in Italy.
The neo-fascism movements from the period of its clandestine intervention to the Movimento Sociale Italiano (1943-1953).