Annual Conference in Memory of Valeria Solesin

Come on girls, let's work! Allez les filles, au travail! Forza ragazze, al lavoro!

Trento, 29th January 2018

The University of Trento, jointly with the Ca' Foscari University of Venice and the University Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne, are pleased to announce the second Conference in Memory of Valeria Solesin.

As trained sociologist and demographer, Valeria was starting the final stage of her PhD at the University Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne on contemporary fertility behaviour in Italy and France. Her main research interests involved marriage and family, the role of women in the labour market and in society, and fertility decisions.

This one-day conference provides an opportunity for presentations and discussions on recent developments in the fields of Demography, Economics, and Sociology as described below. Contributions to the conference can be either theoretical, empirical or policy oriented. Contributions addressing the following specific topics will be particularly welcome:

- Gender inequalities
- The role of women in the labour market and in society
- Welfare policies targeted to the labour supply of women and fertility decisions
- Marriage, family and sexuality.

Young scholars, such as PhD students and post-docs, are encouraged to apply.

Paper submission

Completed papers should be submitted by e-mail to equitadiversita@unitn.it by 19th November 2017.

All papers will be reviewed by the Scientific Committee and acceptance/rejection will be communicated by 15th December.

Best paper prize entitled to Valeria Solesin

Four selected papers will be presented at the conference and considered for the “Valeria Solesin Prize”. The prize amounts to € 3000.00, in addition travelling and accommodation for the winner of the prize will be fully covered.
