Abstract:
In this talk we give an introduction to the topic of singularly perturbed dynamical systems. After a brief introduction of the terminology and of the main tools, we proceed to some visual examples and real-world phenomena which can be modeled and studied with these techniques.

Thursday 12 September 2019 – at 15:00
Seminar Room “-1” – Department of Mathematics