MULTIPLE STAKES
IN A SUCCESSFUL REFUGEE RESPONSE:
LESSONS FROM UGANDA

DUE TO THE COVID-19 EMERGENCY, THE LECTURE WILL BE LIVE STREAMED ONLY

Sara de Simone is a post-doctoral researcher at the School of International Studies of the University of Trento. Previously, she has worked as a post-doctoral researcher at the Department of Sociology and Social Research for two years with a scholarship from the Gerda Henkel Foundation. She holds a PhD in African Studies and Political Science from the University of Naples L’Orientale and the University of Paris 1 Panthéon Sorbonne. Her research interests focus on governance in fragile and conflict-affected states, the relationship between African governments and the international aid industry, intra-African refugee flows and management. She has worked as a consultant for international development organizations and since 2018 is the Chairperson of the Italian NGO Mani Tese.

For further information and pre-registration please visit

School of International Studies  www.sis.unitn.it; sis@sis.unitn.it