Friday 8th June 2018, h 15:00

School of International Studies
Palazzo Paolo Prodi – Sala Targetti
via Tommaso Gar 14, Trento

The School of International Studies convenes the Research Workshop

“HUMAN RIGHTS, BASIC NEEDS, AND THE QUEST FOR EQUALITY IN A GLOBALIZING WORLD”

In the 1970s, the rise of neoliberalism coincides with a triumphant discourse of human rights. How could this happen? Starting from his latest book "Not Enough. Human Rights in an Unequal World", Samuel Moyn will discuss the tensions between markets, welfare, and the dream of global equality in historical perspective.

SAMUEL MOYN – Department of History, Yale University

Introduction: Sara Lorenzini - School of International Studies

CONTACTS:
Scuola di Studi Internazionali, Università di Trento
via Tommaso Gar, 14 I-38122 Trento
tel. +39 0461 283125-21
e-mail: sis@sis.unitn.it www.sis.unitn.it
https://www.facebook.com/SiSUniTrento/