U.S. Mission to Italy presents

Transatlantic Thursdays

Please join us for a discussion on

Women’s Rights Movement
100th Anniversary of U.S. Women’s Right to Vote

featuring

Marjorie Spruill

Thursday, October 29 - 3PM CET / 9AM EST

Ambasciatausa.it/TransatlanticThursdays

The program will be in English

Marjorie Spruill, professor emerita of History at the University of South Carolina, is the author of several books, including Divided We Stand: The Battle Over Women’s Rights and Family Values that Polarized American Politics and One Woman One Vote: Rediscovering the Woman Suffrage Movement.

Professor Spruill will discuss the progression of women’s movements from the suffragists to the 1970’s protests to today and inspire us to take action in our own communities to work toward true gender equality.