

Thursday, April 7th 2022 – h. 1:00-2:30 pm – Room 8 and Zoom

CONFLICT OF LAWS IN CONFLICT AREAS

PROGRAMME

Recognition of States and of their acts between public and private international law

Paolo Turrini, Associate professor, Department of Law, University of Trento (Trento, Italy)

Private international law issues involving non-recognised States: the case of Donbass (online)

Nikitas Hatzimihail, Full Professor, Department of Law, University of Cyprus (Nicosia, Cyprus)

The application of domestic laws on investments in case of inter-state contestations of sovereignty and de facto entities: private international law issues

Sondra Faccio, Assistant Professor, Department of Law and SIS, University of Trento (Trento, Italy)

Restrictions on economic relations with Crimea and Sevastopol, and with the non-government-controlled areas of Donetsk and Luhansk, between public and private international law

Antonino Ali, Associate Professor, Department of Law and SIS, University of Trento (Trento, Italy)

Economic sanctions and private international law: focus on sanctions against Russia (online)

Tamás Szabados, Associate Professor, ELTE Eötvös Loránd University (Budapest, Hungary)

Q&A

Scientific Committee: Sondra Faccio, Assistant Professor – sondra.faccio@unitn.it

Attendance in person in room 8 is reserved to students and scholars of UniTn.

All other people interested can follow the event through the Zoom platform. In order to receive the link for attendance via Zoom, please register using the online form (deadline: April 6th at 12:00).