

NAMEPES Summer School

2022

20-24 June 2022

The North Africa Middle East Politics and EU Security – NAMEPES Summer School will provide its participants with a deep understanding of the relations between the MENA region and the European Union in different aspects (geopolitics, international relations, economics, law).

The Summer School will also analyze in depth the domestic and foreign policy of the main regional players in the Middle Eastern politics by highlighting the role of institutions, civil society and political ideologies, particularly political Islam and nationalism.

The Summer School will commence with the introductory remarks of the Vice President of the European Parliament Ms Pina Picierno. A final international conference will take place on the last day (24th of June).

TEACHING COMMITTEE

Fawaz A. Gerges, Professor of International Relations, London School of Economics, UK

Birte Wassenberg, Professor of Contemporary History, University of Strasbourg, France, Visiting Professor, College of Europe Bruges, Belgium

Joel Gordon, Professor of Political and Cultural History of the Middle East, University of Arkansas, US; Editor of the International Journal of Middle East Studies.

Marco Pertile, Professor of International Law, University of Trento, Italy.

Ali Ansari, Professor of Modern History, University of St. Andrews, UK.

Pejman Abdolmohammadi, Professor of Middle Eastern Studies, University of Trento, Italy

ACADEMIC COORDINATORS

Academic Coordinator: Prof. Pejman Abdolmohammadi; p.abdolmohammadi@unitn.it

Senior Assistant Project Coordinator: Giulia Daga, PhD Candidate; giulia.daga@unitn.it

Assistant Project Coordinator: Claudio Christopher Passalacqua, PhD Candidate; claudio.passalacqua@unitn.it

CONTACTS

NAMEPES Team: namepes@unitn.it

School of International Studies - Program Office: sis@unitn.it