

SIMULTANEOUS TRANSLATION INSTRUCTIONS

To have access to the simultaneous translation service, you must have your smartphone and a pair of earphones (or similar) and follow the steps below:

1. install the "Sennheiser MobileConnect" application (APP) on your smartphone

2. once you are in the classroom, access the University of Trento's wi-fi network called "unitn-translation"

2.1 access to this network is for the sole purpose of using the application. It does not allow guest users to surf the net

2.2 ignore/accept the notification that the chosen network is not secure

2.3 users with a unitn account can authenticate with that account and can have access to browsing

3. open the application on your smartphone

4. select "classroom B"

5. select the channel (the only option available)

6. connect the earphones and listen to the translation

Remember to bring your earphones and the smartphone charger.
