International Conference

THE ADDED VALUE OF SDGs FOR LABOUR RIGHTS PROTECTION

29-30 June 2023
14.00-14.15 Registration, hall 6, Via Verdi, 53, Trento.

14.15-14.30 Welcome speech. Paolo Carta, Law Faculty Dean, University of Trento.
Introductory remarks. Luca Nogler, University of Trento.

14.30-16.30 Panel 1. THE DUTY OF THE STATES TO PROTECT LABOUR RIGHTS.

Key-note speech:
Sandrine Clavel, University of Paris Saclay, France.
French Duty of Vigilance Law and its impact on labour rights

Panel presentations:

Moderator:
Elena Sychenko, Saint Petersburg State University.

Alberto Tampieri, University of Modena and Reggio Emilia, Italy,
Edo Eshet, Sapir Academic College, Israel.

Public Procurement Law And Labour Rights: Perspectives From Italy & Israel.

Ana Neves, Lisbon University, Portugal.

The uncertainties of the labour parameters in public procurement requirements.

Marina Trunk-Fedorova, Saint Petersburg State University, Russia.

Evaluating the GSP schemes monitoring in the EU.

Jorge Balmaceda, University B. O'Higgins, Pontifical Catholic University of Chile, Chile.

Labour Rights Protection under the Trans-Pacific Partnership.

Martina Melchiori and Camila Manfredini De Abreu, Wallbrook, United Kingdom.

Human Rights Due Diligence and Upcoming Regulations: A Route to Prevent Modern Slavery?
PROGRAMME
29 June

16.30-16.45 Coffee-break.

16.45-18.45 Panel 2. THE DUTY OF THE BUSINESS TO RESPECT LABOUR RIGHTS.

Key-note speech: Adoracion Guaman, University of Valencia, Spain.
The critical assessment of the EU Directive proposal on due diligence.

Panel presentations:

Moderator: Riccardo Salomone, University of Trento.

Cinzia Carta, Genova University, Italy.
Mandatory due diligence and civil accountability for the respect of labour rights: the EU perspective.

Federico Micheli, University of Brescia, Italy.
Interconnection between sustainability reporting and labour law.

Bolzonello Gloria, Fair Wear Foundation, Netherlands.
The mutual influence of voluntary codes of conduct and power imbalances in the Indian garment supply chain.

Riccardo Tonelli, University of Ferrara, Italy.
Certifications of companies in Italy from the perspective of labour rights protection.

Federico Pistelli, University of Trento, Italy.
Labour Clauses in Supply Chain Contracts

Wanning Hsu, National Taiwan University, Taiwan
Women Economic Empowerment at the Labor Market through ESG means in Taiwan
PROGRAMME
30 June

10.00-12.00

Panel 3. THE DUTY OF THE STATES AND BUSINESSES TO REMEDY THE VIOLATIONS OF LABOUR RIGHTS.

Key-note speech: Attila Kun, Károli Gáspár University.

The role of OECD NCPs in protecting labour rights.

Panel presentations:

Christoph Lindner, University of Regensburg, Germany.

Extraterritorial protection of labour rights - how the German TÜV SÜD is held responsible for the catastrophe of Brumadinho, Brazil.

Minju Kang, Seoul National University, Korea.

Elisa D'Anneo, University of Trento, Italy.

Global value chains and the transnational social dialogue for remedying labour rights violations.

Martin Curley, Katalyst Initiative, Netherlands.

Supporting SDG Decent Work Targets through Context-specific Supply Chain Governance

Nikita Lyutov and Ilona Voitkovskaya, M. Narikbayev KAZGUU University, Kazakhstan.

The international financial organizations’ advisory activity influence over the system of labour inspections in East Europe and Central Asia.

12.00-12.15

Closing remarks, Elena Sychenko, Saint Petersburg State University.