

Taxing Data as an Instrument of Economic Digital Constitutionalism

Online Symposium
Wednesday 15 November 2023

Convenor: Angelo Golia

ALL TIMES ARE GIVEN IN CENTRAL EUROPEAN TIME

Opening: 11:00-11:15

Welcome: Angelo Golia (Trento University)

Chair: Francisco de Abreu Duarte (European University Institute)

Session 1. 11:15-12:45

11:15-12:00 – Taxing Data as an Instrument of Economic Digital Constitutionalism: An Introduction

Angelo Golia (Trento University)

Discussant: Anna Beckers (Maastricht University)

12:00-12:45 – Data Taxation and The Right to Science in The Digital Age

Jayson Lamchek (Deakin Law School)

Discussant: Thomas Streinz (New York University)

Break. 12:45-13:15

Session 2. 13:15-15.30

13:15-14:00 – A Data Capital Tax in The Light of the Principle of Solidarity: The Case of Medical Research

Marta Fasan (Trento University)

Discussant: Giovanni De Gregorio (Católica Global School of Law)

14:00-14:45 – Automation as Privatisation: The Case for Digital Justice As A Successor Of Agrarian Justice

Jai Vipra (Independent Researcher)

Discussant: Ioannis Kampourakis (Erasmus University Rotterdam)

14:45-15:30 – The Territorial and Sovereign Preconditions for Taxing Data. The Transformation of EU Law Towards Wealth Redistribution and Social Justice?

Francesca Paruzzo (Turin University)

Discussant: Jacopo Ratti (Milan State University)

Break: 15:30-16:15

Session 3. 16:15-17:45

16:15-17:00 – Defining the Goals of a Data Tax

Amanda Parsons (University of Colorado)

Discussant: Irma Mosquera Valderrama (Leiden University)

17:00-17:45 – Taxing Big Data When the Superpower Disagrees

Allison Christians (McGill University) and Tarcísio Diniz Magalhães (Antwerp University)

Discussant: Omri Marian (University of California, Irvine)

17:45-18:30 ca. – Wrap up, steps ahead

Closure: 18:30 ca.

Engaged listeners: Mariana Avelar (Federal University of Minas Gerais), Arthur Bianco (Luxembourg University), Oluwatomiwa Ilori (Pretoria University), Lucas H. Muniz da Conceicao (Bocconi University), Aikaterini Pantazatou (Luxembourg University), Gunther Teubner (Goethe Frankfurt University), Kebene Wodajo (University of St.Gallen)

Please fill the online registration form on the web page of the event to participate. Please join at 10:45 for 11.00 start

This event is part of the research project "The principle of progressivity in the digital economy. Possibility for a "Data Capital Tax" in Italian and European constitutional law", funded by the Ministero Università e Ricerca-MUR (Call: MUR_Montalcini 2020)